

F2932001 MATCHA

An incredible technique is used to create this jacquard with spectacular vertically undulating lines. The stripes appear to be made from thin cord that has been caught between two layers of fabric, as if quilted. But this is not the case. Rather, it is an example of our technical prowess in weaving. The choice of materials, colours and elegant motif evoke the glamour of American movie stars of the 1950's.
