

F3383001 JULIETTE

Gilles & Boissier's 'Les trois sœurs' capsule collection for Pierre Frey. A jacquard fabric with cashmere patterns, made of wool, inspired by an Egyptian shawl. Brought back from Egypt, Napoleon I offered these precious fabrics to Josephine. That's all it takes to ignite the fashion trend for these patterns. French weavers and printers then reproduce these exotic designs and highlight the mastery of their know-how. Dorothée Boissier reinterprets, for Maison Pierre Frey, the archival model of a cashmere fabric reminiscent of a turquoise hanging that covered the walls of her childhood desk, both masculine and with a Persian flavour.
