

T0670002 GIRAFFE

Since ancient times, the giraffe has fascinated the West with its large legs and long neck. In 1826, Mehemet Ali decided to offer one to England. However, the giraffe did not cope well with the journey and it died on arrival in London. The animal's coat then inspired fabric designers in search of exoticism, like that of the cheetah, tiger or zebra.

T0670002 - Chestnut

Thorp of London

TYPE	Prints
TECHNIQUE	Screen printed by hand
SALES UNIT	Available per meter/yard
GROUND	TS007 - George Off White
COMPOSITION	100 % Linen
NUMBER OF COLORS	2
COLORS	A-HAZELNUT 165 B-CHESTNUT 118
DESIGN WIDTH	130 cm / 51,18 inch
REPEAT	H: 64 cm - 25,19 inch V: 32 cm - 12,59 inch Straight repeat
WEIGHT	685 gr / ml
CARE
INFORMATION	Hand screen printed

3 Colors

T0670001
Thyme

T0670002
Chestnut

T0670003
Thatch