

BP338001 LE PARAVENT CHINOIS

LE PARAVENT CHINOIS is a reproduction of a screen owned by celebrated American designer John Derian. With floral chinoiserie dating from the 18th century, the wallpaper is reproduced in its original color, as well as two signature Maison tones. The cracks and patinas of the time have been retained within the drawing to better resemble the archive. It also evokes painted silks imported from China called "Pekins". Depending on the color, it is printed on a matte (BP338) or iridescent (BP342) non-woven backing.
