

BP351001 MEZZARO

Refined decoration with the tree of life placed on a mound with various scales and populated with animals. The archive, a "mezzaro" or "voile de Gênes" preserved in the Maison's archives, is a panel printed with the block printing technique on a fine cotton canvas in Italy during the 19th century. It is offered here in blue and red tones and printed on a real silk with a slightly glossy appearance. A floral border frames the main design.
