

FP483001 GANESH

A Hindu daydream that narrates the Mahabharata, one of the major epics of ancient India. An elephant led by a mahout heads a procession of various characters and animals decorated with heavy jewelry and colored patterns; among them is Harishchandra, legendary Indian king, and Ganesha, the god of good fortune. Printed in an extra wide format, this work of art was drawn with a feather and Indian ink and required many hours of work.
