

FP620002 LA YOURTE DU NOMADE

A vertical or horizontal interpretation of a saddle cover, preserved in the Maison's archive collection. This unique piece bears witness to the privileged position that horses occupied in Persian civilization. The traditional impression makes it possible to emphasize, in trompe l'oeil, the effect of the weaving and irregularities of time. This reference is studied for vertical use, as vertical stripes on the wall, or for horizontal use, as a border.
